

CV:

Dr Michael Lau graduated from NUS Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine. He is trained in Internal Medicine and obtained certification from the Royal College of Physicians UK (MRCP). He is currently working and further training in the Laboratory Medicine Department of Changi General Hospital (Singapore). He has 24 publications, including 9 on COVID-19. In addition, he has 13 poster presentations on COVID-19, presented at the AACC Annual Scientific Meeting and SingHealth Pathology ACP Research Day in 2020 and 2021. He has also given invited lectures to the Singapore Association of Clinical Biochemistry in 2019-2021.